MEMORANDUM FOR: THE ACTING DIRECTOR

This is in reply to General Erskine's memorandum of 13 September wherein he advises an effort is being undertaken to establish an over-all Department of Defense personnel support policy for CIA, and suggests we designate a representative to serve on an ad hoc committee appointed to study the problem.

As a result of working level discussions with General Erskine's Office it was agreed that since the Services had been requested to designate two representatives we should do likewise -- one for Personnel and one for Operations. [redacted]

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT: Military Personnel Support of the Central Intelligence Agency

As you are aware, the Department of Defense has provided personnel support to your agency since its creation. This support has been rendered by blanket filling of the Central Intelligence Agency's personnel requisitions which are based on an agreed annual ceiling. Recently, however, and in the light of certain Military Services' personnel policy, the Service Secretaries have called to our attention the fact that there has never been established a Defense policy covering the qualifications of military personnel to be furnished the Central Intelligence Agency or the uses to which these personnel are to be put by your agency.

In an effort to establish an overall personnel support policy for the Central Intelligence Agency, there has been appointed an ad hoc committee which will be required to review current personnel support practices with an eye to recommending suitable methods of internal Department of Defense monitorship which will insure the most efficient method of furnishing military personnel support for your agency.

It is, of course, most desirable that this committee be aware of your requirements in some detail if it is to make an intelligent evaluation and to arrive at a solution of the problem. It is, therefore, suggested that you may wish to designate a consultant empowered to sit with this committee and to furnish such information as may be required in the course of its deliberations.

Remarks: The contents of General Erskine's letter were discussed with Colonel B. J. Smith, in General Erskine's office. 25X1

Col. Smith advised [ ] that the services has been asked to furnish the committee with a representative for operations as well as for personnel. In view of this, [ ] suggested that it might be desirable to have more than one consultant appointed from the Agency. Col. Smith agreed and said that there would be no objection to having more than one representative. 25X1

The matter was referred to Mr. Helms of DD/P who delegated [ ] of Cover Div.
